

sports & recreation

Sahtu swim

Kids compete in Norman Wells

by Natalie Dunleavy

Northern News Services

Lli Goline/Norman Wells

Norman Wells had a shindig of a swim meet when they greeted teams from Aklavik, Colville Lake, Inuvik, and Tuktoyaktuk for the Beaufort Delta Regional Swim Championships this month.

Of the 287 total swims, here are the results:

Top teams:

Norman Wells, 307 points

Aklavik, 113 points

Colville Lake, 60 points

Inuvik, 53 points

Tuktoyaktuk, 37 points

Most improved teams from preliminary swims to finals:

Inuvik 45%

Colville Lake 44%

Tuktoyaktuk 30%

Most finals swims:

Norman Wells, 40

Aklavik, 22

Inuvik, 11

Top Female:

Yvonne Mullenbroek (Norman Wells), 53 points

Top Male:

Mark Mullenbroek (Norman Wells), 52 points

Above right: Swimmers from Norman Wells, Aklavik, Colville Lake, Inuvik, and Tuktoyaktuk gathered for a group photo at the end of the Beaufort Delta Regional Swim Championships in Norman Wells this month. Right: Mark Mullenbroek (Norman Wells), set the most records at the meet, and was awarded top male. Far right: Yvonne Mullenbroek (Norman Wells), pictured here in a backstroke event, was awarded top female and set the most records at the meet.

photos courtesy of Alexander Legaree

